FL High School English teacher receives state theater award

FOREST LAKE, MINN. – Andrew Waldron, an English teacher and theater director at Forest Lake Area High School, has been named the 2010 Outstanding New Secondary Teacher by the Communication and Theater Association of Minnesota (CTAM).

The award was presented at the association’s annual conference, which was held this year on Sept. 17 and 18 at the Holiday Inn in St. Cloud.

The award is presented annually to a secondary teacher in Minnesota who has been teaching for five years or less and who has had a positive impact on students and the CTAM organization. Waldron is in his fifth year of teaching at the Forest Lake high school.

“(Waldron) has not only been an outstanding teacher and speech coach, but he has also directed musicals, the one-act and spring plays,” said fellow Forest Lake English teacher Becky Haven, who gave Waldron’s introduction speech at the event. “In addition, he has done lights and choreography for nearby high schools and performed in Twin City theatrical venues.”
